ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

The people of Hondo were shocked and grieved when news reached here early Monday morning that Mrs. Ben Wiemers, Jr., had died suddenly at her home some eight miles north of Hondo.

Judge Lamm, in his capacity as coroner, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Charles Schuchle, early Monday morning in response to a summons from members of the family of deceased, went to make inquiry into the cause of the death—a requirement of the law when a death occurs without any apparent cause.

According to the testimony of the husband of deceased before the coroner, deceased had retired the night before at about 8:00 P. M. apparently in the best of health and spirits, that about 4:30 A. M. she was up and nursed her infant son, after which both the deceased and her husband again went to sleep; that about 5:00
A. M. he was awakened by her labored breathing, and going to her tried to arouse her but in vain, death ensuing in about five minutes. Her death, according to the family physician, who was called immediately after the seriousness of her condition was discovered but who arrived after life was extinct, ascribes her death to what is termed by the medical profession as embolism of the brain (blood clot).

Deceased was married to Mr. Ben Wiemers, Jr., about a year ago. One child, a boy, had been born to them;
she was 22 years of age and her untimely passing has brought profound sorrow, not only to her immediate relatives but to a large circle of friends. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheile of Tarpley.

On the very threshold of her married life death claimed her and her passing has cast a shadow over the life of her husband that it will take many a day to efface. To him and to the baby boy who will never remember the tenderness of mother love, no matter into what loving hands he may fall, and to the other members of the afflicted family the sympathy of all our people go out in un stinted measure.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

Walter Hill who operated a garage and repair shop in the building formerly used by McClaugherty & Horger as a livery stable, has gone to seek newer and greener fields. According to the best information obtainable
he took his departure last Monday night, the means employed in his going being a freight train.

Hill—which is probably an alias—made his advent into this town some two months ago, claimed to be an expert auto mechanic, and opened up business. Adolph Haegelin providing him the means with which to equip his repair shop with the necessary tools. He claimed to be prospering in business, and indications seemed to bear him out in his claim, as he was apparently an extremely busy man at all times.

Want of time to go to the bank
during banking hours was his excuse for getting his checks cashed by business men. Mr. W. H. Windrow had accommodated him numerous times, the checks always being honored by the bank, and when he presented a check drawn on J.C. Clemens Monday for $35.00, it was cashed without hesitation. This check was turned down, and investigation disclosed that Hill had shook the dust of Hondo
from his feet.

A warrant was sworn out and placed in the hands of the Sheriff.
Wires to the west brought the information that Hill had been pulled off a freight train in the yards at Del Rio, but that he hopped another before the wire was received and was on his way west, and it is possible he will be in the toils of the law before a great while.

It is possible this fellow victimized others of our people, but Mr. Windrow's loss is the only one we have thus far been able to establish.

—[F. F.]—

STEERS KILLED.

Mr. D. W. Short will remember the electric storm of Tuesday night of last week for many a day, as ten of his beef steers fell victims to one of the vivid flashes of lightning. The dead bodies of the steers were not found until the latter part of the week—too late to even save the hides.
While busy around the ranch, Mr.
Short sent his son for a little observation ride out in the pasture, and to Howard fell the discovery of the misfortune that had befallen them.
Mr. Short said eight of the steers fell right together, so close that they were touching each other, while the other two were a few feet removed from the pile. Mr. Short estimates his loss at between $400 and $500.
This is not the first time lightning has struck in that part of the Short pasture where the bodies of these steers were found. A few years ago, during an electric storm a bolt of lightning struck the earth and tore out a trench some seventy-five yards in length, Mr. Short says resembling the work of a middle-buster more than any other way he could describe it. However, the electric storm mentioned above was the first to do him any real injury.

ROUND ABOUT THE HOME

FOR MAY DAY.

By Helen H. Downing.

Specialist in Home Economics.

May Day offers another opportunity for a happy day for the children.

The celebration of May Day with a dance is an old custom still carried out in many sections of the country. It was long ago customary to start before dawn, making excursions to the woods and bringing in wild flowers for the May festival. A bough was brought from the forest, stripped of its branches, planted, decorated with garlands of flowers and became the center of dances and games.

In planning the May Party nothing could be more in keeping with the day than the May Pole dance. In school celebrations for the sweet girl graduates, as well as the younger pupils, the May Pole dance is still one of their most attractive numbers. Streamers of varied colored bunting fastened at the top of the pole and hanging down are caught by the youngsters. The children will be delighted in their white dresses, or in a costume the color of the bunting ribbon. In tripping around the pole the ribbon will wind on the pole to produce the very pretty effect of a gay colored pole. To unwind the streamers the dancers must reverse, beginning with the last to wind her ribbon on the pole.

What child is there who will not be eager for the refreshments after their out-of-door festivities? If the day is warm and sunny the refreshments may be served on the lawn. A small colored basket containing dainty sandwiches made from the jams and jellies on the emergency shelf, a small bottle of grape juice, and cookies with colored icing, or a piece of cake, may be handed to each of the children. Direct them to form a circle around the May Pole to partake of the contents of their baskets. Or, a luncheon may be prepared and served at the dining table. Peas in patties, peanut butter, ham or lettuce sandwiches, ice cream, rolled oats cookies and dates will make a satisfying luncheon and the preparations will not leave Mother too tired to enjoy the party with the children.

JELLY ROLL.

3 eggs beaten separately
1 cup sugar
1½ cups pastry flour
2 level teaspoons baking powder
½ cup warm water
flavor
Sift flour once, then measure; add baking powder and sift three times; beat whites stiff; fold in sugar, fold in beaten yolks, then water, then flour lightly. Bake in long shallow pan in hot oven, at 375 degrees F. Spread quickly with jelly and roll carefully in napkin.

CREAM CAKE.

baking powder and sift three times; cream butter and sugar, add well beaten yolks, then flour and water alternately, then extract; beat long and hard and fold in lightly the well beaten whites. Bake in moderately slow oven for 30 to 35 minutes.

FILLING.

1½ tablespoons cream
¼ teaspoon lemon extract
Put egg, milk and extract into bowl. Gradually add sugar, beating long and hard. Color a delicate pink, using pink vegetable coloring.

1 cup seedless raisins
1 cup coconut
1½ cups sugar

SCHOOL LUNCHEONS.

By Helen H. Downing.

Specialist in Home Economics.

The more we learn about the necessity for balanced rations, the more serious the problem of children's school luncheon becomes.

It is a subject that requires daily, thoughtful attention. The municipal school luncheon committee is doing great experimental work for the mother. By watching school results one can best adapt the menus that prove best for the health and mental activity of the child.

If possible it is better for a child to come home at noon for lunch and have a bowl of hot broth or soup, a baked apple with cream and some cookies.

If too heavy a lunch is eaten, instead of being refreshed as well as nourished, the child will be drowsy during the afternoon.

Caesar is quoted as having warned his soldiers to "eat just enough to repair powers, not deaden them".

It requires continual ingenuity to keep the luncheon that the child carries tasty and well balanced. Sandwiches and cake should be wrapped in oiled papers, as should salad, stuffed eggs, oatmeal cookies, jelly roll, etc.

A stock of this oiled paper should always be kept on hand for just such use.

High School students need a variety in foods. At this age their growth is rapid and the protein or "Building" food such as milk, meat, fish, egg, etc. should be abundant.

"Built Me Up"

"I USED Cardui for years and it did me more good than any medicine I ever used," writes Mrs. M. C. Ragsdale, of Fort Towson, Okla. "I used to suffer with womanly trouble that weakened me until I was a mere shadow, nervous, and could not sleep. I did not feel like I could live."

"It seemed that nothing helped me till I heard of Cardui and began to use it. It strengthened me and, as 'twas recommended to do, it regulated and built me up till I was like another woman."

If you are weak, run-down and feel that you need a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic, the tonic about which you have always heard, the tonic that helps weak women regain their strength.

Cardui acts on the womanly system and helps relieve pain and discomfort due to female ailments.

Try Cardui, today, for your trouble.

Mexican Child Accidentally Killed.

Saturday at noon while the children of Esteben Plata and Eniterio Gonzales were playing at the home of Eniterio Gonzales a shotgun was accidentally discharged, probably by being pulled down by one of the children, or perhaps the children were playing with the gun. Little Balbina was found dead on the spot while her sister was confined to her bed for several days. [F. F.]— ROBT E. LEE IS NAME OF
S. A.'s NEW HOTEL.

Boerne Girl Wins Hundred Dollars in Name Contest.

THOUSANDS OF REPLIES.

In announcing the winning name for the splendid new hotel soon to open in San Antonio, Percy Tyrrell, well known throughout the United States as a hotel man and prominent in Texas as Manager of the Gunter Hotel has made a very happy choice.

Robt E. Lee as a young officer in the United States Army, in the early days before the civil war, was identified with Texas history to a much greater extent than most people realize.

Commemorating his name by bestowing it on the new hotel will awaken an interest in this early history, will call forth explanations and historical statements which every Texan should know.

The name Robt E. Lee reawakens no sectional prejudice, nor does it bring to mind particularly any division of the North and the South for General Robt E. Lee was generally beloved and today his name is revered throughout the nation.

The winning name was submitted by Miss Linda Condon of Boerne, Texas, and the award sent her just a few days after a decision was reached.

Thousands of names were submitted including Bluebonnet, The Texas, Trails End, many of them novel, many of them conventional. The interest created throughout the State and even in other sections of the country was very gratifying to the management and duly appreciated.

The new Robt E. Lee Hotel is a strictly modern, ten story building with two hundred rooms. Fire proof and provided with every possible convenience, this hotel will add greatly to San Antonio's ability to take care of transient guests.

A commercial hotel in every sense of the word, the Robt E. Lee will not provide sample rooms but will cater to that class of commercial traveler who does not need hotel space in which to display his wares.

Jack White, popular and efficient as assistant manager of the Gunter Hotel will become manager of the new Robt E. Lee.

The management of the Robt E. Lee is planning an opening sometime around June first which will be far and away the most ambitious event ever staged in Texas upon the opening of a Hotel. It is expected that reservation for the opening day will fill the new Robt E. Lee long before its doors are ready to open, but arrangements will be made to care for every guest who applies for accommodation on the opening day.

The management of the Robt E. Lee will particularly welcome visiting Texans to this new hotel and do their utmost to make their stay in San Antonio pleasant.

Both the City and the State are to be congratulated on the completion of the Robt E. Lee as it marks a spirit of progress and paves the way for that growth of State and City which through the years will reach proportions putting many another section of the country behind.

BRIEDEN-SCHOTT.

One of the prettiest church weddings of the season was solemnized at St. Louis Catholic church, Castroville, Tuesday, at 9:30, May 1st, 1923, when Miss Carrie Wilhelmina Brieden became the wife of Mr. August R. Schott, Reverend Father Heckman reading the beautiful ceremony. The bridesmaids were Misses Clara and Octavia Schott and Alice Rihn, little Miss Pauline Renken, of Hondo, acting as ring bearer. The groom's best men were Messrs. Leonard Brieden, George and James Schott, of Devine, cousins to the groom. The bride was gown in a beautiful Baronett satin, trimmed in Spanish lace and carried a bouquet of white roses and ferns; the maids of honor and ring bearer wore dresses of pink taffeta and carried pink roses and ferns. The groom and his best men wore the conventional black. After the ceremony, the bridal party went to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brieden, where a bountiful dinner was served to a large number of relatives and special friends of the contracting parties; after other refreshments, later in the evening they repaired to Wernette's beautiful Garden, where, as at the church, they entered to the strains of a beautiful wedding march and further celebrated with music, merriment and dancing until near the midnight hour. The bride is the lovely daughter of one of Castroville's most prominent homes and is well fitted to be the wife of the young man who has chosen her for a life partner. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. August Schott, Sr., another highly respected family of Medina County, of Devine, is bookkeeper for one of the largest business concerns of Devine and has recently erected and furnished a nice bungalow on Lytle Street, in Devine, where they will be at home to their many friends. This paper joins a large circle of friends at Devine and Castroville in wishing for them much success and happiness in life.

TEST RUN: OVERLAND AUTO-MOBILE.

Dallas, Texas, April 16, 1923. "Mr. J. C. Stephens, Care Magnolia Petroleum Co., Ft. Worth, Texas. Dear Sir:

This will advise you as to the results of the recent test which we ran with the Overland Stock Touring Car, April 9, 1923.

The gas tank was inspected and found empty by the Chief of Police, of the City of Ft. Worth, after which an attendant from the Magnolia Filling Station put exactly 8 gallons of gas into the gasoline tank. The tank was then officially sealed by the Chief of Police, and the test run began.

The speedometer was set to (000) miles at the start, and the car stopped with gasoline supply exhausted at a speedometer reading of 229 miles. The seal was inspected and broken by Mr. R. S. Coker, Automobile Editor of the Ft. Worth Record. You can figure that the average miles per gallon of gasoline were 28.74.

We consider this a victory for the Overland Car, inasmuch as the car was driven in what we chose to call an every day test, and we feel it is right that the Magnolia should know these results.

All above statements are borne out in affidavits which we hold in our files from all the parties who had anything to do with this test.

To summarize the run, briefly: 229.9 miles on 8 gallons of gasoline made in the running time of 9 hours and 20 minutes; 14 stops, 505 lbs. average passenger load; car driven on city streets, and country roads, in traffic and out of traffic, at all speeds, the average speed being about 25 miles an hour.

Thanking you for the co-operation and courtesy extended by your Filling Station employees, we are,

(Signed.)

THE LITTLE HOUSE

By JULIA A. ROBINSON

© 1922, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Maude was engaged to Tom Rankin, the son of a millionaire, who would inherit his father's property.

"Choose your house, Grille," Tom said to her. "I want you to have just what suits you."

"Oh, Tom! May I really choose?" cried Maude.

"Of course you may," he laughed. "Everything will be yours after we are married."

Maude had always been poor. Her father had found it hard to support his family, and she had tried to help. She was used to giving up the luxuries of life, but longed for beautiful things about her.

"Have you any place in mind, or shall we build to suit ourselves?" he asked.

"Ah, Tom!" she beamed, "do you know the house at the top of Lincoln avenue, with the conservatories and the cupola? I've always thought if I could live there I'd be perfectly happy."

"Of course you can have it, if money will buy it," he declared. "I want you to be perfectly happy."

"Oh, I didn't mean that—I'd be perfectly happy with you anywhere," she blushed.

It was a week after that that the crash came. In the panic the great house of Rankin & Co. went down. Tom's father became bankrupt. His house, everything he owned, must go to pay debts. Mr. Rankin, being in poor health, could not long survive the failure. He died leaving Tom with ruined prospects, and his father's debts to pay. With courage he took up his task. He went to the girl he loved and told her all.

"But all is not lost," she told him. "We have each other, and our love. We must marry just the same. You must let me help. Do you suppose I would let you meet your struggle alone?"

"Do you mean it?" he cried.

"Yes, I do. We can live on very little. I know how to economize. Let us be married at once."

"Staples has given me an offer. Maybe we can pull through on that," he brightened.

They found a little house on the outskirts of the town and began their wedded life. There was space and air, and distant views.

At first Maude was a little lonely, but she always met Tom with a smile of cheer, and he never knew.

One day in the early spring an inspiration came to her. The air was balmy. Why not have a garden? It would make the old place more cheerful.

Enthusiastic over the new idea, Maude began to dig. Her mind was filled with happy thoughts, till Tom came and found her.

"Why, Grille!" he cried, "Isn't this too hard work for you? What are you doing?"

"I'm going to have a garden!" she beamed. Her back ached, but she did not mind.

He praised her pink cheeks and her food, and after supper he wiped the dishes.

All through the summer the garden was a source of joy.

They had lived two years in the little home, and there was a baby's voice to make it more happy. One night Tom came home earlier than usual. His eyes were smiling and she asked merrily, "What is it, Tom?" for she knew when he looked like that he had something of special interest to tell her.

"Things have been going just fine," he explained. "I've been making money. All father's debts are paid with a big surplus, and I'm promoted. I'm head of the department, with salary enough to give you all you want."

"Oh, I'm so glad!" she enthused. "I knew you were smart, and people would find it out. I'm proud of you!"

"It's for you I've been working—you and baby. Now I can give you the home you ought to have. Do you remember the house you wanted before we were married—the one on Lincoln avenue? It's for sale. I'm going to buy it and give it to you."

She gasped, and her head went down on his shoulder, but she did not speak.

"What is it?" he asked, "aren't you glad?"

"Oh, Tom! You're so good, but—" "But—what is it?"

"Don't buy it, Tom!" she blurted. "Why not? Don't you want it? You can have all the company you want."

"How could we leave this dear little house, where we began together, where baby was born—and the garden. It wouldn't be home—do you want to go—very much?"

"No, I don't want to go. I'm happy right here. I was only thinking of you. I thought you'd be happier there."

"Then don't buy it," she begged. "I'm happier right here. We'll fix up this place and buy more land—I love it so! I couldn't bear to leave it."

"That suits me exactly," he beamed. "We have been too happy here to leave it, that's a fact, and I like the country as well as you."

"Tom, you're so good!" she laughed. "Kiss me, I'm so happy!"

LIFE-SAVING CAMPAIGN IN SOUTHWEST DIVISION

American Red Cross Organized and Trained Many Corps in This Section Last Summer.

More than 34 chapters have been visited during the months of May, June and July by Captain Norbert E. Raacke, first aid and life saving representative of the Southwestern Division. While visiting these various chapters, Capt. Raacke gave first aid demonstrations before Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis Clubs, as well as life saving demonstrations and instructions at Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and many outdoor pools and lakes. At the majority of the pools and lakes visited, the Captain has noted particularly that practically little or no life saving precautions are taken. A large lake at Nevada, Mo., is owned by an old Indian, who believes that if a person were drowning someone near at hand would come to the rescue.

Many letters of commendation have been received from chapters visited by Capt. Raacke. Salina, Kan., was particularly well pleased with his demonstrations at the Country Club outdoor pool. The following is an extract from a letter recently sent in by the life saving examiner of that town:

"Capt. Raacke's clever work at the large outdoor pool of the Country Club was watched in breathless silence, only to be broken by wild cheering at his many extraordinary feats of swimming and life saving. Capt. Raacke, to us, is a marvel of efficiency and his crawl stroke is still the talk of the town. He not only has been a great help in the Life Saving Department, but has given even greater interest to the Red Cross in its other lines of work."

There are several well organized life saving corps in the Southwestern Division. Kansas City, Mo., has an excellent women's corps. At the annual banquet, held in May, life saving badges were awarded to more than forty women, service medals to two and the life saving bar to one.

On July 30th the river patrol of the St. Louis Chapter gave an exhibition and races at Lincoln Beach, on the Meramec River. This exhibition was witnessed by probably the largest crowd ever gathered at Lincoln Beach. More than 500 canoes fringed the sand when the first event, the canoe singles race, was announced. Capt. Raacke had charge of the life saving demonstration, showing the various methods of breaking death holds encountered in rescuing a drowning person.

Eight life guards, after his demonstration on the barge, struggled viciously with each other in a practical illustration of life saving tactics.

The Galveston, (Texas) Life Saving Corps have frequently exhibited their skill in first aid and life saving. Owing to the prompt and efficient first aid administered by three members of the Galveston Life Saving Corps on June 14th, the life of John D. Wheeler, 29 years old, of Houston, Tex., was saved. Mr. Wheeler was overcome while bathing in shallow water and was found floating in an unconscious condition. The three members of the life saving corps succeeded in reviving Mr. Wheeler through the application of the Schaeffer method of resuscitation. He was taken to the hospital in a very weakened condition. As Mr. Wheeler was found in comparatively shallow water, it is believed his mishap was due to a fainting spell.

Devine Man Elected Delegate to Supreme Senate.

Hon. G. C. Morris attended the State Senate of the Modern Order of Praetorians, at Galveston this week, and Mr. Morris was named as one of the delegates to the Supreme Senate, which convenes in Dallas next Tuesday. He also served on the Resolutions Committee.

Shook School Closes With Nice Program.

A number of people, including the editors of this paper, attended the closing exercises of the Shook school, Friday night. The entire community turned out and a half dozen cars from town added to the crowd. A nice program was rendered, the principal feature being the playlet, "Cinderella," which was acted well by the pupils, closing with a beautiful tableau of the different characters, under a colored flare light. Some recitations, etc. were rendered by the pupils and talks were made by Messrs. Paul Keller and Henry Bendele, closed by the editor of The News. Misses Frances DuBose and Octavia West were the teachers who are high in the praises of the community. The new school board is D. H. Griffin, P. S. Keller and Pete Huegele, who takes the place of Ezra Griffin, retiring. The school now has a modern building and is becoming quite a community center.

Died at Dilley.

Mrs. J. R. Stroud was called to Dilley last Thursday night by a message which said her brother, Fred Briggs, was not expected to live. She met her sister, Mrs. S. B. Moore of San Marcos, on the train, but the train being late did not reach Dilley until the brother had passed away. Mr. Briggs was reared and lived many years in the Lytle section, going to Dilley about 1913, when he sold his holdings at Lytle to the Medina Irrigation Co. He was one of nature's noblemen. He leaves a wife and several children, besides several brothers and sisters and a host of friends.

We caught a local Poultry buyer weighing some chickens this week and chanced to learn that good sized fryers are bringing about 50 cents and a good fat hen is worth $1.00. Folks, it pays to raise chickens and the best kind, the larger breeds, some of which are as good layers as the little leghorn, which is popular as a layer.

Robert Foster and C. M. Thompson are spending some time over on the new highway near Hondo where they have several men and teams at work. Several Devine men have been over there recently at work.

The little three year old child of Jarvis Smoot, on the Zigzag road got its feet badly burned one day the past week by walking into a bed of live coals left in the yard. Blood poison set up and the doctors have had a time trying to save the life of the child.

But'er Hopson is getting about $60 to $65 per ton for his late cabbage, but many of them are doing badly, the late planting going to stem and seed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blackburn of Biry visited their daughter, and new granddaughter here Sunday and attended church.

Louis Scherrer of Castroville visited his ranch near Devine one day the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ulbrich of Hondo visited their daughter, Mrs. Guy Newcombe, Friday.

A. W. Keller reports killing two pairs of big rattlesnakes recently, treed by his old yard dog. He thinks he has stopped two broods of these poisonous serpents; but says one of them bit his dog. Fortunately the dog did not die. There are going to be high weeds again this year and these venomous serpents have been on the increase the past few years on the farms and ranches.

J. H. Hester and W. C. Collins of Lytle have bought F. X. Schneider's 320 acre farm at Bear Creek, Mr. Collins taking the home place. Mr. Hester put in a house and lot in Devine as part pay. J. A. Taylor of Lytle assisted in putting the deal through. Mr. Schneider will remain on the farm this year.

Howard-Morris.

Miss Gladys Jewel Morris and Edgar M. Howard were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents in Devine, on Wednesday evening, April 25, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties, Editor W. L. Dubose officiating. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morris, for the past two years has been the popular primary teacher in the Black Creek school, and is an accomplished and charming young woman. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Howard and a successful young mechanic, now engaged with Ward Construction Co. in Highway work. Immediately after the ceremony and usual congratulations, they took the train for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home in Hondo for a while. They were born, reared and educated in the same community before coming to Devine and have been sweethearts and lovers since childhood. The News joins their many friends in hearty congratulations and good wishes for a long, happy and successful life.

WITH THE DRILLERS.

Drilling was resumed in the Fritz Fuchs well on the Bohmfalk farm Monday, after a cessation of a couple of weeks waiting on the cement to "set". This well had reached a depth of 1520 feet up to Wednesday evening, the drill at that time being in a dry sand. Results from this well are looked for at an early date.

The Ina Oil Company's well on the George Schmidt ranch had reached a depth of 866 feet at last report, and the drill was in a sand yielding some oil, said to be of an unusually good quality.

The well on the Kreisle tract on the Francisco was testing out at last account, but we have not learned the result.

All the wells where drilling is in progress are nearing the oil sand and this field should be proved or disproved at an early date.

IF SICK TODAY! TAKE NO CALOMEL

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Straightens You Up Better Than Salivating, Dangerous Calomel and Doesn't Upset You—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Read Guarantee

I discovered a vegetable compound that does the work of dangerous, sickening calomel and I want every reader of this paper to buy a bottle for a few cents and if it doesn't straighten you up better and quicker than salivating calomel just go back to the store and get your money back.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your thirty feet of bowels of the sour bile and constipation poison which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable.

I guarantee that one spoonful of this harmless liquid liver medicine will relieve the headache, biliousness, coated tongue, ague, malaria, stomach or any other distress caused by a torpid liver as quickly as a dose of vile, nauseating calomel, besides it will not make you sick or keep you from a day's work.

Calomel is poison—it's mercury. It attacks the bones, often causes rheumatism. Calomel is dangerous. It sickens—while my Dodson's Liver Tone is safe, pleasant, and harmless. Eat anything afterwards, because it can not sallow. Give it to the children because it doesn't upset the stomach or shock the liver. Take spoonful tonight and wake up feeling fine and ready for a full day's work.
